

Saint Lucie Elementary is a PBS School

PBS is Positive Behavior Support

Positive Behavior Support is a collaborative (team-based), educative, proactive and functional process to developing effective interventions for problem behavior. The positive refers to a change of focus from reactive, constantly pointing out what students did wrong (negatives), to proactive teaching and recognizing what children are doing right (positives). PBS views appropriate consequences as those that are effective in changing the student's inappropriate behavior. PBS acknowledges and rewards students for following school-wide expectations and rules. Appropriate behavior is acknowledged after the fact. The rewards are earned, not offered as payoff in exchange for good behavior.
