

Frequently Asked Questions

What You Need to Know about: Scheduled Classes, Missing Assignments and Course Failures

Scheduled Class Sessions: When do class time sessions end?

Frequent Asked Question #1

“I’m done with all my assignments in my course, and I’m satisfied with my final grade (Semester 1 December 20th or Semester 2 June 2nd), do I still have to attend my scheduled Class Time and Homeroom with my instructor?”

Answer: YES. Students must continue to attend Class Time and Homeroom sessions until your instructor determines you have met the requirements of the course. We typically release students from this obligation if students have:

- 1) taken any state assessment associated with the course and*
- 2) completed all assignments and segment exam with a passing grade and*
- 3) completed all state required instruction for their grade level associated with the course.*
- 4) Student has confirmed they are satisfied with their final grade for the semester.*

Note: assignments issued a zero must be submitted prior to issuing a final grade. No exceptions.

Canvas Course: Past Due/ Missing Assignments

Frequent Asked Question #2

“What happens if I don’t complete all assignments at the end of the term?”

Answer: If due dates have passed and coursework is not submitted, students must continue to work on missing assignments and attend regularly scheduled Class Time sessions to get support from instructors to ensure the course is complete by the end of the term.

IMPORTANT: Students in grades 6-12 not yet 100% complete in all courses by end of pace calendar will be required to come to campus for Mandatory Catch Up Days. Teachers will support students on campus during these dedicated days and will not be available via Teams or Zoom for remote help. Failure to attend may result in course failure if requirements are not met by the end of the term.

Report Card: Course Failure

Frequent Asked Question #3

“What happens if a Middle or High School student fails a course?”

- Answer: When a student fails a course, they do not earn credit for the segment they failed. This would require the student to make up this credit in a credit lab, summer school, or to retake the full course segment they failed.
- Unfortunately, Mosaic Digital Academy does not have a credit recovery or summer school option. If a student fails a course, they will recover the credit at their zone or physical school.

Current 6-12th Graders

- Current 6-12th Graders who fail a course will not be eligible to remain enrolled in the virtual program. They will be reported to Student Assignment to be assigned to their zone school, where they will be offered credit recovery options.

8th Graders

- Current 8th Graders who fail a course will not be eligible for promotion to High School in the Fall. They will be assigned to their zone school to repeat 8th Grade.

High School Athletes

- High School Athletes may not be eligible to participate in sports if they have not maintained GPA requirements.
